

PHOTOGRAPH, VIDEO, TESTIMONIAL AND IMAGE RELEASE

I hereby irrevocably agree and consent that Abrams Bed, LLC – maker of The Safety Sleeper, organized and existing under the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and its successors and assigns, may use all or part of any photograph, image, video, silhouette, or other reproduction of my likeness, which I have submitted for your web site at www.thesafetysleeper.com, or for other marketing, advertising, or other reasonable purpose.

I shall have no right to compensation or royalty for the photograph, image, video, silhouette, or other reproduction of my likeness or the likeness of my child or children.

I hereby irrevocably waive any "moral" or other rights of authorship in the photograph, image, video, silhouette, or other reproduction of my likeness or the likeness of my child or children, which may accrue under the laws of any jurisdiction, and agree that the same is and shall be a "work made for hire" as that term is understood and interpreted under U.S. and international copyright laws.

The rights granted you are perpetual, worldwide, and include the use of the photograph, image, video, silhouette, or other reproduction of my likeness or the likeness of my child or children, in any medium (whether now in existence or later discovered) including, but not limited to, print, radio, broadcast and cable television, the Internet, broadband, CD-ROM, audiocassettes and videocassettes.

This consent and license is given as an inducement for you to publish, broadcast and/or disseminate photograph, image, video, silhouette, or other reproduction of my likeness or the likeness of my child or children for the purpose of promoting The Safety Sleeper. I understand that you are relying on this consent and license and that you may incur substantial expense in the use of the photograph, image, video, silhouette, or other reproduction of my likeness or the likeness of my child or children.

You are not obliged to make use of the photograph, image, video, silhouette, or other reproduction of my likeness or the likeness of my child or children, or to exercise any of the rights granted you by this release.

I reasonably believe that the photograph, image, video, silhouette, or other reproduction of my likeness or the likeness of my child or children is free of obscenity, and other unlawful matter, and does not infringe the intellectual property or privacy rights of any other individual or entity.

I will not bring suit in law or equity against you or any of your employees, agents or principals on the grounds of libel, slander, or invasion of privacy with regard to the photograph, image, video, silhouette, or other reproduction of my likeness or the likeness of my child or children or its use by you.
